

∞ Fairfield Earth Day 2014 ∞

Saturday, April 26, 2014

8 a.m. to noon

Civic Center Pond ~ behind City Hall ~ 1000 Webster St.

KUIC will broadcast and helping us to give away prizes during the event.

Activities include: composting demonstrations, recycling information, water conservation ideas, PG&E's arborist, a jump house and children's activities, McGruff the crime fighting dog, free finger printing for kids, local organic agriculture ~ Shooting Star, information on safe routes to schools, science demonstrations, free mosquito fish, pet adoption event hosted by Solano County Animal Shelter, and a showcase of recycling posters created by local students.

∞ ∞ ∞ Reduce ∞ Reuse ∞ Recycle ∞ ∞ ∞

Kids Day of Fishing, Inc.
 When you fish with love
 LET'S GO!
 You fish with your heart.
 So, Care to Nibble?
www.kidsdayoffishing.org

Confidential Paper Shredding & E-Waste Recycling Drop Off
 Chamber of Commerce parking lot / Civic Center Drive
 First two boxes free, additional boxes $10/box donation
Time: 9:00 am – Noon ~ Info: 423-9350
Gone for Good – United Cerebral Palsy of North Bay

Earth Day Fishing Derby

- Fishing Derby from 8:30 a.m. – 1 p.m.
- Registration starts at 7:30 a.m.
- For special needs and underprivileged kids 3 - 15 yrs. old
- Free t-shirt, rod and reel, tackle box, bait and lunch to first 250 kids that sign up - it's first come, first serve.
- Special needs children may pre-register
- Pond will be stocked with catfish and bass
- Trophies for top fish and lots of raffle prizes

For more information or to pre-register, contact Kids Day of Fishing at www.kidsdayoffishing.org or call 707.816.2037.

Thank you to the sponsors of our Earth Day Celebration!
For additional information call Fairfield's Recycling Hotline at 428.7489